

DUKES

Digging history out of crypts: Lithuanians and Belarusians restoring the common heritage of the Dukes Radziwills family

PROJECT TITLE	DUKES: The Dukes Radziwills' heritage preservation and adaptation for tourism in Kedainiai and Nesvizh
IMPLEMENTATION PERIOD	09.02.2019 – 08.02.2021
ORGANISATIONS INVOLVED	Kedainiai Regional Museum (LT); National Historical and Cultural Museum-reserve "Niasvizh" (BY)
PROGRAMME	Latvia – Lithuania – Belarus ENI CBC 2014-2020
TOTAL BUDGET	726.703,76 €

The project is promoting the cooperation of two regions that share the same history of the Radziwill's family. The initiative aims at the creation of a more sustainable and efficient Radziwills' historical heritage, increasing the vitality and attractiveness of the Kedainiai and Nesvizh regions, and ensuring a bigger flow of tourists. The project is going to restore the remaining tombs, to show artifacts related to the family and to adapt them for tourist's visits.

BUSINESS

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Project co-funded by the European Union