CBC // Cross-border cooperation

The BUSY project reinforces the capacities of young entrepreneurs and self-employed people in Russia and Finland to start businesses across the border. Trainings, start-up bootcamps, entrepreneurship conferences aim at helping young entrepreneurs from both countries to grow and develop their businesses consciously and confidently. Matching potential partners, financiers, customers, and mentors; creating a CBC-oriented young entrepreneur network; opening of a new co-working space, this all provides young people with new opportunities to develop, while remaining in the region.
