ENI-CROSS BORDER COOPERATION

The three project partners developed specific joint education programmes for social entrepreneurship, that stimulate creativity, innovation and active citizenship among relevant actors of the cross-border area: students, public authorities, NGOs, social enterprises, private companies, mass media and people from vulnerable groups. A cross-border resource centre in the field of social economy / social entrepreneurship was established both virtually and physically - in Iasi (RO) and Chisinau (MD). The project aims to promote social economy and social entrepreneurship to improve the quality of life of people in the cross-border region, both during the implementation of the project and in the long-term.
