

MEDRISSSE

New social policies to combat poverty & inequality

PROJECT TITLE	MedRISSE – Replicable Innovations of SSE in the provision of services and creation of decent jobs in the post covid-19 crisis recovery
IMPLEMENTATION PERIOD	01.09.2021- 31.08.2023
ORGANISATIONS INVOLVED	Assembly of Cooperation for Peace (ES); An-Najah Najah National University (PS); Development Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid Department (IT); Agricultural Development Association (PS); The Jordanian Hashemite Fund for Human Development (JO); Tunisian Center For Social Entrepreneurship (TN); PIN S.c.r.l. Didactical and Scientific Services for the University of Florence (IT); Innovation & Social Economy in Mediterranean (ES)
PROGRAMME	Mediterranean Sea Basin ENI CBC 2014-2020
TOTAL BUDGET	1.111.110,99 €

Previously involved in different ENI CBC MED projects, the partners are now gathering in a new project to upscale the results and co-create new municipal services building on the cooperation between agents from the Social and Solidarity Economy (SSE) sector. The main objective is to combat poverty, inequality, social exclusion and environmental unsustainability in the Mediterranean. How? By developing innovative social policies in the field of Social and Solidarity Economy. The project partners have created a Mediterranean co-production lab to jointly develop innovative social policies; they are producing policy briefs and a cross-country analysis report on national studies and mappings of different social innovative services. A “Mediterranean toolkit” is also being develop to protect economic and social rights. Altogether, the project partners aim to influence policymakers and to address the current needs of the society in the post-Covid19 crisis recovery era.

SOCIAL PROTECTION & INCLUSION

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE COOPERATION

Project co-funded by the European Union