Romania-Republic of Moldova
ENI-CROSS BORDER COOPERATION

The CONCEPTION project increases the capacity and efficiency of Romanian and Moldovan police in crime scene investigations and management of evidence of crimes. The partners developed an information management system to manage traceability of evidence of crime scene investigations and a relevant common work procedure. During the project, 100 Romanian and Moldovan police officers enhanced knowledge and competences in forensics, exchanging best practice and participating in joint trainings with the use of the forensic equipment purchased within the project.
